My name is Geo Roberts. I have gotten to know Travis and JJ over the last couple of years, and we are so aligned with a vision to transform businesses and organizations I decided to join the team. I was raised on a cattle ranch in Nebraska, USA and dreamed one day of flying jet aircraft. That childhood dream and becoming a Christ follower grew until at 16 I accepted a nomination at the USAF Academy. Upon graduation, I devoted 15 years of my life serving my country in Vietnam, the US and United Kingdom flying combat and training aircraft. As an instructor pilot I discovered my passion for helping people from all backgrounds unlock their gifting and skills to fly and lead.

Once my wife and I left the Air Force while in the UK, we cofounded a leadership and training organization and trained tens of thousands of people from all over the world to communicate more effectively, build lasting working and improving profitability through innovation. These billion dollar companies saved millions of dollars by collaborating with their colleagues more and daring to stretch their comfort zones in amazing ways.

We also helped a charity develop a program to get disadvantaged young people into work or further education. This program run by Resurgo in the United Kingdom now has 17 centers around the UK and some in Africa. Resurgo has won many awards for their outstanding service to society. For the first 10 of their 20 years of existence I was instrumental in the development of every coach in the organization. through their Coaching for Leadership program.

We have two sons and enjoy watching our 6 grandchildren grow. Besides serving in our local church I love playing golf with family and friends, reading, and discovering new ways to help people from all walks of life stretch their comfort zones.
